EQUAL TREATMENT?

MEASURING THE LEGAL AND MEDIA RESPONSES TO IDEOLOGICALLY MOTIVATED VIOLENCE IN THE U.S.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 6 @ 12:10-1:10 PM

Columbia Law School, Jerome Greene Hall, Room 103
435 West 116th Street, New York, NY 10027

Hate crime or terrorism? Lone wolf or extremist? These words are often used to describe ideologically motivated violence in the U.S., and their use by officers of the law and members of the media has impact on real cases. ISPU's new Equal Treatment? report compares media coverage and legal treatment when the perpetrator of an act of ideologically motivated violence is perceived to be Muslim vs. not perceived to be Muslim. Join Equal Treatment? co-author Kumar Rao as he explains what this data means for Muslims in America.
