

AMERICAN MUSLIM POLL 2019

PREDICTING & PREVENTING ISLAMOPHOBIA

---

WEDNESDAY, MAY 1 @ 2:00–3:30 PM
NYU DC | 1307 L Street NW, Washington, DC 20005

We're excited to announce the publication of ISPU's American Muslim Poll 2019: Predicting and Preventing Islamophobia with an event at NYU DC.

Returning for its fourth year, ISPU's signature poll surveys Muslims, Jews, Catholics, Protestants, white Evangelicals, and those that consider themselves non-affiliated to chart the attitudes and policy preferences of everyday Americans.

This year's survey also includes ISPU's second Islamophobia Index (II), created in partnership with Georgetown's Bridge Initiative. This year, we use the II to examine and tease out factors that predict and prevent Islamophobia.

On May 1, Dalia Mogahed will present the findings of the survey followed by a lively discussion with an esteemed panel of guests, moderated by Mehdi Hasan (The Intercept). Audience Q&A will follow.

RSVP to attend at ispu.org/events.
