

presents

Why Muslims are Vital to American Progress

For almost two decades Muslim Americans have been telling the world what they condemn and what they are not. It's time to show the world who they are and what they contribute. In this research driven lecture, ISPU's Director of Research will share the little known story of the contributions of everyday Muslims to their country's innovation, prosperity, values, and wellbeing.

EXHIBIT

Muslims for American Progress (MAP) Project

A photography exhibit showcasing individuals of distinction in the Muslim American community.

HUB TALK

Dalia Mogahed in conversation with Dr. Craig Considine

January 26, 2020—5:00-7:00pm

*Dinner will be served after the main program.
General Admission $25. Student Admission $15.*

Event held at Hub925
5341 Owens Court, Pleasanton, CA 94588
(925) 678-0106

Purchase tickets online at hub-foundation.org

A limited number of tickets will be provided for free for guests who otherwise could not attend. Hub925 members can also receive a discount code. Please contact us at information@hub-foundation.org